

motion. To the extent the Court excluded related admissible evidence during trial, it cannot be reached by a Rule 60(b)(3) motion, and the time to challenge the ruling under Rule 59 has passed. Moreover, the Court made no error in sua sponte precluding Defendants from impeaching the credibility of Lead Plaintiff Jahagirdar or in excluding any references during the trial to Jahagirdar's pending criminal charges.

Defendants' Motion to Set Aside Judgment, (Doc. No. 343), is DENIED.
